

UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1995 The Czech Historical Town of 1999

Cathedral of St Barbara - UNESCO site

Work on this unique Gothic monument commenced in the late 14th century. The church's interior contains a unique collection of late Gothic and Renaissance murals dating from the 15th century.

Open daily: I.-II. 10am-4pm; III., XI., XII. 10am-5pm; IV.-X. 9am-6pm

Entrance fee (incl. Chapel of Corpus Christi): adults CZK 85; students, pensioners CZK 65; children (6-15), disabled 40 CZK

Contact: Barborská, Phone No.: +420 327 515 796, e-mail: info@khfarnost.cz, www.khfarnost.cz

Chapel of Corpus Christi

The ground floor of a Gothic site from the turn of the 14th and 15th century, which was originally designed to an ossuary, counts among the few buildings preserved as a whole from the era of late Gothic. There is a beautiful view out of the terrace.

Open: III. Sa-Su 11am-4pm; IV. daily 10am-5pm; V.-X. daily 9am-6pm; XI.-II. on request

Entrance fee: adults, students (15-26), pensioners 10 CZK; children (up to 15), disabled – free; or as a part of the visit of Cathedral of St Barbara

Contact: Barborská 679, Phone No.: +420 327 515 796, e-mail: info@khfarnost.cz, www.khfarnost.cz

Jesuit College – GASK

Three-storey Baroque building with transverse wings in the shape of a reversed letter "F" was built in 1667 by Giovanni Domenico Orsi. Gallery of Central Bohemian Region–GASK–institution focused on the fine and visual arts of the 20th and 21st centuries resides there.

Open daily, except Monday: I.-XII. 10am-6pm

Entrance fee: all exhibitions/separate exhibitions - adults CZK 200/80; families 260/120; students under 26, pensioners, disabled 50% discount; Visual playrooms - child CZK 40, admission free with a ticket to the North Wing or the whole building.

Contact: Barborská 51-53, Phone No.: +420 725 377 433, e-mail: info@gask.cz, www.gask.cz

Czech Museum of Silver - Hradek

This small urban castle, originally in Gothic style, was erected by a royal building master prior to 1420. The building currently serves as the Czech Museum of Silver, visitors can also see the medieval silver mine here.

Open daily, except Monday: IV., X. 9am-5pm; V., VI., IX. 9am-6pm; VII., VIII. 10am-6pm; XI. 10am-4pm (last admission 90 min. before closing, recommended to book in advance)

Entrance fee: adults CZK 90-160, children, students, pensioners CZK 60-110

Contact: Barborská 28, Phone No.: +420 327 512 159, +420 733 420 366, e-mail: info@cms-kh.cz, www.cms-kh.cz

Dačický House

This unique late Gothic house is accessible from the cellar to the attics. It is a birth place of the famous bohemian Mikuláš Dačický from Heslow. There is an interactive exposition of UNESCO sights and of the town of Kutná Hora.

Open daily: 10am - 6pm

Entrance fee: adults CZK 100; children, students, pensioners CZK 50

Contact: Komenského nám. 41, tel.: +420 605 900 486, e-mail: info@dacickehodum.cz, www.dacickehodum.cz

Italian Court

This cultural monument consists of an array of buildings dating back to the turn of the 14th century. There used to be a mint there. It also was a temporary seat of Czech kings at the beginning of the 15th century. King Wenceslas IV had two floors and a chapel built in 1400. His royal palace was directly in the mint.

Open daily: III., X. 10am-5pm; IV.-IX. 9am-6pm; XI.-II. 10am-4pm (last admission 30 min. before closing)

Entrance fee: adults CZK 105, pensioners CZK 85, students CZK 65

Contact: Havlíčkovo nám. 552, Phone No.: +420 327 512 873, e-mail: vlasskydvur@kh.cz, www.pruvodicikutnahora.cz

Museum "Unveiling the mysterious face of Kutná Hora"

It shows real crimes and filth, instruments for torture and punishment at the time of the silver rush of Kutná Hora and its surroundings. It is located in the cellar of the Italian Court. An acoustic coulisse accompanies the authentic setting.

Open daily: III., X. 10am-5 pm; IV.-IX. 9am-6pm; XI.-II. 10am-4pm

Entrance fee: adults CZK 65, students, children CZK 45

Contact: Havlíčkovo nám. 552, Phone No.: +420 721 775 522. E-mail: MuzeumB@seznam.cz, www.muzeumB.cz

Museum of mystical Kutná Hora legends and ghost

... it is as if those who do not penetrate into the origins of the famous town and its legends, have never been to Kutná Hora.

A unique exhibition of the most beautiful legends of the Kutná Hora. Legendary characters, spirit, the skeleton, waterman, devil and others...

Open daily: III., X. 10am-5 pm; IV.-IX. 9am-6pm; XI.-II. 10am-4pm

Entrance fee: adults CZK 75, students, children CZK 60

Contact: Havlíčkovo nám. 552, Phone No.: +420 721 775 522. E-mail: MuzeumB@seznam.cz, www.muzeumB.cz

Church of St John of Nepomuk

The plans for this Baroque church were drawn up by F.M. Kaňka in 1734-1754 and the actual building was carried out by the famous K.I. Dientzenhofer. The front facade is decorated with the statues of St Adalbert and St Procopius.

Open daily: IV.-X. 10:30am-4:30pm; XI.-III. prior booking needed

Entrance fee: adults CZK 75, students, pensioners CZK 20

Contact: Husova, Phone No.: +420 327 314 958 ext. 126, e-mail: spd@mu.kutnahora.cz, www.kutnahora.cz

Stone House

One of the most precious burgher houses from the 15th century in the Czech lands. Currently this richly decorated house serves as a museum. Expositions: "Urban life from 17th to 19th century" and "Lapidary".

Open daily, except Monday: IV.,X. 9am-5pm; V.,VI.,IX. 9am-6pm; VII.,VIII. 10am-6pm; XI. 10am-4pm

Entrance fee: adults CZK 50-90, children, students, pensioners CZK 30-50

Contact: Václavské nám. 183, Phone No.: +420 327 512 821, www.cms-kh.cz

Tyl House

Two permanent expositions are on offer: "Josef Kajetan Tyl" (the author of the lyrics of the Czech national anthem-„Where is my home") and "The underground of Kutná Hora and its exploration".

Open Tuesday to Saturday: IV.-X. 10am-4pm

Entrance fee: adults CZK 20, children, students, pensioners CZK 10

Contact: Tylova 507, Phone No.: +420 327 512 159, www.cms-kh.cz

Church of St James

Its construction started in 1330. Until the half of 17th century it was called „Upper“ due to its construction.

Open daily: VI. – IX. 10am–12:30pm; 1pm–5pm

Admission: voluntary

Contact: Jakubská, Kutná Hora - Vnitřní Město, Phone No.: +420 327 515 796, e-mail: info@khfarnost.cz, www.khfarnost.cz

Church of Our Lady „Na Náměti“

The Church was established probably on the spot of former silver-miner's chapel before the year 1357 and was placed outside the town fortification. The construction was financed by revenues from silver ore.

Open Sat – Sun: VII.-VIII. 10am–12:30pm; 1pm–5pm

Admission: voluntary

Contact: Na Náměti, Kutná Hora - Hlouška, tel.: +420 327 515 796, e-mail: info@khfarnost.cz, www.khfarnost.cz

Alchemy Workshop

The museum guides you through an alchemist's workshop where sought scholars seek Philosopher's stone and transform base metals into gold. You may even discover the infamous Golem.

Open daily: IV.-IX. 9am-6pm; X.-III. Mo-Fr 9am-5pm, Sa-Su 10am-4pm

Entrance Fee: adults CZK 60, children, students, pensioners CZK 40, family CZK 160

Contact: Palackého náměstí 377, tel.: +420 327 512 378, e-mail: alchymiekh@seznam.cz

Museum of Building Bloks (Lego)

This museum offers more than 1000 unique Lego models for viewing including a magnificent model of the Ossuary at Sedlec built from more than 50 000 little bloks.

Open: IV.-IX. daily 9-18 hod.; X.-III. Mo-Fr 10-17 hod., Sa 9-17 hod., Su 10-16 hod. (current opening time can be found at: www.muzeumlega.com)

Entrance Fee: adults CZK 120; children, pensioners CZK 80; students CZK 90; children up to 120 cm (with adult) CZK 30; family (2+2) CZK 320

Contact: Palackého náměstí 377, tel.: +420 608 779 966, www.muzeumlega.com

Ossuary at Sedlec

The small Church of All Saints built in the 14th century is located in Sedlec at a cemetery in the vicinity of the grandiose Cathedral of the Assumption of Our Lady. The Ossuary is decorated entirely with human bones. It is estimated that there might be remains of as many as 40 thousand people here.

Open daily: IV.-IX. 8am–6pm; Su 9am–6pm; III. and X. 9am–5pm; XI.-II. 9am–4pm

Entrance fee: adults CZK 90, children, students, pensioners, disabled CZK 60

Contact: Zámecká 127, Phone No.: +420 327 561 143 (parish), e-mail: info@sedlec.info, www.sedlec.info

Cathedral of Assumption of Our Lady and St. John the Baptist at Sedlec – UNESCO site

This historic monument once belonged to the Cistercian Order, which founded its first monastery in Bohemia at Sedlec in 1142. Thanks to rich findings of silver ore the Cistercians financed the build of the cathedral, it was completed in 1320. It was rebuilt in 1699-1709 by Jan Blažej Santini-Aichl in Baroque Gothic. It represents the first cathedral-like structure built on Bohemian soil.

Open daily: IV.-X. 9am-5pm, Su 11am-5pm; XI.-III. 10am-4pm, Su 11am-4pm

Entrance fee: adults CZK 50, children, students, pensioners, disabled CZK 30

Contact: Vítězná, Phone No.: +420 327 561 143 (parish), e-mail: info@sedlec.info, www.sedlec.info

Philip Morris exhibition at Sedlec

A modern exhibition of the history and the present development of Philip Morris Company. The tobacco blend and the cigarette making can be seen on screens as well as great collection of the old cigarette boxes made in Kutná Hora. Admittance: adults only.

Open daily, except Monday: IV.-X. 10am-4pm

The visit of the Refectory of the former Cistercian monastery together with the tour of the factory and exhibition "CXCI – Changes at the monastery at Sedlec" is possible. Open all year round: Mo-Fr 9am-4pm (booking needed, at least 3 days ahead, minimum 5 persons).

Entrance: Free

Contact: Vítězná 1, Phone No.: +420 327 509 126, +420 327 509 111, e-mail: expozice.kh@pmi.com

Special offer - The selection of our special price packages:

Ossuary, Cathedral of the Assumption of Our Lady: adults CZK 110; students, pensioners, disabled CZK 70

Ossuary, Cathedral of the Assumption of Our Lady, Church of St Barbara:

adults CZK 185; students, pensioners, disabled CZK 130

Ossuary, Cathedral of the Assumption of Our Lady, Church of St Barbara, GASK:

adults CZK 305; students, pensioners, disabled CZK 210

Museum "Unveiling the mysterious face of Kutná Hora, Museum mystical Kutná Hora legends and ghost":

adults: CZK 115, students, children: CZK 85

Information centre

Palackého náměstí 377, 284 01 Kutná Hora, phone No.: +420 327 512 378, +420 731 801 004

e-mail: infocentrum@kutnahora.cz www.kutnahora.cz